An Offensive Breath
is abominable, and there is no excuse for it. SOZODONT will always eradicate this evil from your system. But there are thousands who utterly neglect any care of their teeth, and suffer for their breath to become tainted. They put their finger in their mouths, and their breath is offensive to the faces of their listeners regardless of the annoyance they inflict.

Keep a bottle of SOZODONT'S GUM, and apply to such gossip's lips. ang 24/90

It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

Coughs.

"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, SORE THROAT, HOARSENESS and BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS. For thirty years these Troches have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and artificial, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. The Troches—"Brown's Bronchial Troches"—act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers and the Troches useful.

A COUGH, COLD, CATARRH or SORE THROAT requires immediate attention, as neglect often results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief. Treatments are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are sold only in bottles.

BRIEFLETS.

—An unfair week for fairs.

—Judge Conger opens court in Jefferson, Monday next.

—There will be plenty of chances to go to Afion, next week, besides walking.

—Witnesses are being subpoenaed for the Mack trial at Jefferson which is set for the 20th.

—There will be the usual meeting for Bible study and song at the First Methodist church this evening.

—The funeral services of Mrs. Maria Birdie will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence.

—There was a pleasant little tea party at the residence of S. A. Hudson, last evening, given by his daughters, in honor of their guest Miss Kate Kimball, of St. Louis.

—B. B. Riggs, leader of the orchestra and brass band of the New Orleans minstrels, and W. S. Robinson, the trombone soloist, arrived yesterday, making the company complete, and rehearsals have commenced with the expectation of opening the season here one week from tonight.

—On Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week, trains on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will leave Janesville at 8:30 a. m., returning will leave Madison at 1:55 p. m., arriving at Janesville at 6:50 p. m. Excursion tickets on sale during the week at $1.05 to Madison and return.

—Last evening Albert F. Watson and wife residing on Pearl street in the First ward, were the victims of a wisely planned and successfully executed surprise party, for which the daughters of Rebecca were the responsible parties. The affair passed off happily and the occasion proved most enjoyable to all who participated, as well as to the surprised ones.

—J. T. Pugh is evidently determined on having his customers satisfied as to quality and variety of goods from which to select their fall and winter clothing. The stacks of clothing and of cloth which he is piling up on his counters and shelves show that he has been picking out the best to be had in the market, and buying liberally. His enterprise doesn't go unwarded, for his trade is a lively one, even in wet weather.

—The stranger who was robbed of a silver watch and some trinkets, while lying asleep on the depot platform with some bunnies, has recovered his watch. He got sight of the fellow whom he suspected, charged him with the theft, made him squeal and hand over the watch. He said the pocket-knife was at his boarding place, and the stranger going with him, was led to a remote part of the First ward, where the thief broke from him and escaped.

—The play of the "Irish Spy," which was put on at the Opera house in Beloit, to catch the fair folk there didn't seem to satisfy. The Free Press in speaking of it says: "The play was rendered by an amateur company, which had been so advertised would have been well enough. The audience expecting something even passable, and that the company were 'professionals' was very bolstered, and showed a disposition to break up the play, which was finished, however."

—Rock River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F. has received an invitation from the Milwaukee Patriarchs to go to that city on the 7th of October, at which time the Grand Encampment will be held. In accordance with their acceptance of this invitation, a squad of Patriarchs from this encampment are making preparations to attend in uniform, and are making the necessary arrangements for being clad as becometh the order. Their new uniforms are to consist of chapans with royal purple plumes, haldies of royal purple trimmed with brilliant and decorated with emblems of the order, gaudlets of same color and similarly trimmed, side swords and belts also ornamented with the mystic symbols, black suits and blacked boots, which altogether will make as pleasing and elegant a uniform as could well be planned for. The Patriarchs begin drill to-night under the instructions of B. H. Baldwin, and will get in shape to go into Milwaukee in a manner which will reflect credit upon the order here. There will be a score or more of these uniformed Patriarchs, and they will show up well.

World renowned, as unrivalled, the Astor House, New York.

INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND.

The Institution for the Education of the Blind begins another year's work next Wednesday, the students being expected to arrive Monday and Tuesday. The corps of teachers and employees is about the same as last year, but there are a few changes.

Miss M. L. McKibben, who has had charge of the girls' work department, has returned to her former position in the Ohio institution, and her place here will be filled by her sister, Miss Angie B. McKibben, who is deemed in all respects worthy of the trust and capable of performing the duties.

Miss Watson is temporarily absent, in consequence of the sickness of her sister, and this vacancy is not yet filled.

It has been decided to drop the broom department, and to turn attention more particularly to carpet weaving, the reason for the change being that the broom business is so overdone, and so much affected by machinery, that a student learning his trade finds it not a very easy means of self support in after life. For two years past there has been more or less attention given to carpet weaving, and such success has attended the attempts thus far, and such encouraging facts are gathered from elsewhere, that this will become a leading industry at the institution. One of the scholars, Miss Barbara Fontaine, is just finishing to-day a carpet, which is to be exhibited at the State Fair next week. She is totally blind, and yet this piece of carpet would be a credit to a skillful weaver who had good use of both eyes. It is a rare bit of work indeed, and shows well what can be done in this direction.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Nellie Fifield has returned from her Southern trip.

—Will Watson returned yesterday from his trip to St. Paul.

—Rev. J. L. Jones started last night for Kansas for a short trip.

—Miss Helen Blinn is back from her vacation, ready to resume her duties as teacher at the Institution for the Blind.

—Rev. H. D. Catlin, of Pennsylvania, arrived this afternoon. He will supply the pulpit of All Souls church for several Sundays.

—L. S. Peckham, who has been in the employ of C. E. Moseley, has gone East, his health seeming to demand a change of climate.

—Grand Worthy Templar Phillips stopped here long enough yesterday to shake hands with a few friends and then hurried on to Milwaukee.

—Mr. and Mrs. St. Hart, who have been for five years past in Europe, and most of that time in Brussels, expect to return to Janesville next month.

—Mr. J. E. Whittlesey, of Chicago, for many years a resident of Janesville, is visiting in the city, and will remain over Sunday. He is the guest of Dr. Childenden.

—E. B. Heimstreet has returned from Pewaukee. He reports Sykes new drug store as being opened up in fine shape and with good prospects for a continued rush of trade.

—Mr. and Mrs. Casander Nellis, of Freeport, made a short visit to their old home here yesterday, on their way back from Geneva, where they have been visiting her home.

—Fred Dickerman, who for so long has been connected with the postoffice, will on Monday next enter the employ of R. W. King, and will be found in that bookstore, ready to wait upon customers. Fred has many friends and acquaintances, and deserves them, and King has done well to secure him.

—George L. Treat, of the town of Rock, expects to start next Tuesday for Minnesota. He will remain a few days in Minneapolis, and then proceed to Alexandria, where he will enter the employ of his uncle, who is engaged in the drug business there.

—Miss May Colvin will leave on Monday morning for Milwaukee to enter upon a four years' course of study in St. Mary's Institute, which is under the direction of the School Sisters of Notre Dame. The prescribed course embraces every useful and ornamental branch of education, which a young lady needs, and there are advantages of a superior character in many respects.

BARRETT VS. RICHELIEU.

Last Wednesday evening Lawrence Barrett appeared at Pittsburgh in Richelieu, the same play which he is to present at the Opera house here next Monday evening. The Chronicle of that city speaks as follows concerning its production there:

If Butler had written nothing else, he could have testified to "Richelieu" to transmit his name to posterity. U. Barrett played only "Richelieu" he could safely submit that performance as a claim to the first rank in his profession. No actor on the American stage, no English speaking actor, equals him as "Richelieu." There are differences of opinion concerning his other performances, but the majority agree that this "Richelieu" is unequalled. The play was put on in excellent style last night, and the entire performance was up to the usual standard. Some of the actors were not letter perfect, but the really important parts were in capable hands, and all the entire company is to be congratulated upon its satisfactory performance. Mr. James as "Don Juan," Mr. Bock as "De Berringham," Maria Wainwright as "Julie" and Mr. Rogers as "Joseph," evinced just conceptions of the various parts. Mr. Barrett's performance showed no doubt him to carry on a lofty conception of one of the most trying characters essayed on the modern stage.

Dear woman in thy hour of ease, Unconscious and hard to please, When pain and anguish wring thy brow; A ministering angel thou, When Bilibious Clod makes us cry Spring Blossom's best, at once to try, Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Sherer.
